John Fuyume Honored by Greater Bridgeton Legends and the Philadelphia Phillies

John Fuyume is co-founder and trustee emeritus of SECC whose mission is “to preserve and make known the unique history of Seabrook...as a place where peoples of different races and cultural heritage were given an opportunity for a new start in life...” John was honored as a Greater Bridgeton Legend on March 12 and by the Philadelphia Phillies on April 18. Under John’s leadership SECC has focused on the Japanese Americans who were released from incarceration camps during WWII and who relocated to Seabrook following a US Supreme Court ruling that any conceitedly loyal American should not be detained without reason. In addition to establishing SECC, John dedicated himself to giving voice to the Japanese Americans in the community by acting as ambassador for the Center and publishing an oral history through SECC. In 2011, John received the Order of the Rising Sun, Gold and Silver Rays from the Government of Japan for his contributions to preserving and promoting the history and culture of Japanese Americans. John is also an emeritus member of the Board of Governors of the Japanese American National Museum, past vice governor of the Eastern District Council of the Japanese American Citizens League and former president of the league’s Seabrook Chapter. John has retired to Audubon, Pennsylvania and remains a faithful supporter of SECC.

Community Connections

Seabrook Buddhist Temple presenter Keiko Toro of Japan visited SECC with Lauren Pucher, Alice Yamasaki and Rev. Earl Ikeda

Cumberland County Community College students Henry Orta and Richardo Lopez followed Professor Donna Pearson's suggestion to visit SECC.

A	R	E	T	O
D	K	P	P	K

From the letters in this square the names of at least twelve vegetables can be formed. Begin at a letter and move up, down, across, or diagonally. You cannot jump over a letter. All must join. Do not double any letters. If you repeat a letter in a word, a new move must be made for each time it is used.

Originally published in the 1956 Seabrooker, a Seabrook Farms company monthly magazine, this puzzle remains a bit tricky! If you have any issues of company publications or Seabrook event programs please let us know.

ANSWERS: potato, bean, beet, pea, tomato, carrot, radish, chard, pepper, okra, kale, leek.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

Dear Contributors,

It is a pleasure to invite you to the Seabrook Educational and Cultural Center, Inc.'s (SECC) twenty-fourth Annual Meeting of Contributors.

SECC is supported by volunteers who provide invaluable services to make the museum a success, such as our Advisory Board, auditor, tax advisor, legal counsel, artifact donors, docents, consultants and officers. Your generous support by tax deductible contributions have made it possible for SECC to be recognized nationally for its mission to preserve and make known the unique history of Seabrook.

Sincerely yours,

Bruce T. Peterson

NOTICE OF MEETING

The Annual Meeting of Members of the Seabrook Educational and Cultural Center, Inc. a 501(c)3 public supported organization will be held at the Upper Deerfield Township Municipal Building, Seabrook, New Jersey, on Wednesday, June 8, 2016, at 7:15 p.m. for the following purposes:

*To elect the officers for the ensuing year as nominated:

President:	Bruce T. Peterson
Treasurer:	Stefanie Pierce
Secretary:	Ingrid Hawk
Trustees:	Michael Asada
	Larry Ericksen
	Donna Pearson
	Lauren Taniguchi
	Eevi Truumees

*To act upon such matters as may properly come before the meeting. Members of record at the close of business on May 11, 2016, and who are present will be entitled to vote with respect to this solicitation.

Third grade gifted and talented students from Hopewell School visited SECC with teacher Kathleen Maloney. They learned how Seabrookers from twenty-five different countries came to the global village and worked side by side with other newcomers in an innovative agricultural enterprise called the “Largest vegetable factory on Earth” by Life Magazine in 1955. Call our office (856) 451-8393 to book your group today!
